Welcome

to WAA's Digital Studio, where advanced technological tools are made accessible. We demonstrate both how and why certain techniques in digital media are used and participants respond well to this approach. Our experienced tutors are praised for their “easy-going style”, “never-ending patience” and an “all inclusive attitude aimed at individual requirements”. We believe our emphasis on the use of digital technology for the production and promotion of art make the Digital Workshops unique in Wales. Our aim is to support women gain the knowledge and skills they need, to take forward digital technology and make it their own.

Tutors

If you're working on a complex project or have specific training needs, WAA's professional tutors can offer their skills and knowledge through practical, tailored workshops.

Gillian Herbert

Gillian is a freelance graphic designer with an impressive range of artistic clients, including Cardiff's Buzz Magazine and The Buffalo Bar. Gillian's distinctive designs currently grace WAA's popular newsletter and promotional print.

Tailored Workshops:
