About tactileBOSCH Gallery:

Based in a converted 200-year-old former laundry house, tactileBOSCH Gallery & Studios is adaptable and almost chameleonic in its nature. As an alternate gallery space, tactileBOSCH has an impressive back catalogue and experimental approach, where the vast, naturally lit space gives artists and curators the opportunity to exhibit and experiment. This ability to transform itself results in a living, breathing environment, capable of producing a complex dialogue between artist, curator, gallery, location and audience.
